

COAL CREEK CEMETERY

Fulton Township, Section 7, Township 18, Range 8 West. Original land patent to John D. Cook 14 July 1834. In 1896, Wilson Richardson donated the ground for a church built in that year. The church was torn down in the 1960's leaving only the cemetery. Christy Kruger, Valerie Hoagland, Rosemarie Sutherlin and Betty Dotson, members of the Fountain County Genealogy Society read this cemetery in June 2000.

The north boundary is the Snoddy Road and the west boundary is Coopers Chapel Road. North of this cemetery and across the Snoddy Road is the Snoddy Cemetery in Wabash Township. Many of the same families are in these cemeteries.

To reach this cemetery, from Interstate 74 at the edge of Covington, take Stringtown Road south 7.1 miles, turn left on Snoddy Road, follow less than 1 mile to this cemetery on the right. The Snoddy Cemetery is just north of Coal Creek Cemetery and is in Wabash township.

Rows are from north to south, beginning on the west side.
